Our hosts made a good choice for our August outing. The Great Outdoors RV Resort was new to most of us and we were pleasantly surprised. The terraced parking spots were well kept and roomy, and the attendants warm and friendly. Fifteen coaches attended.

Some of us arrived early just to enjoy the company and surrounding area. The mountains were beautiful. The outing started Friday evening with dinner at Fat Buddy's BBQ restaurant. It was everyone's favorite. Dessert was served in the spacious club house afterwards. A short business meeting followed.

Saturday breakfast was superb. The moist, mouthwatering breakfast casseroles, biscuits, juice and coffee really hit the spot. We had the day free and some of us explored the surrounding area. The Scottish Museum was great. Saturday evening we had a pot luck dinner, with the hosts supplying succulent roast beef. More desserts and visiting followed, as we were too full to do anything that required any activity.

Sunday morning we had a continental breakfast, devotions, and said our goodbyes. I'm sure we will be using the Great Outdoors RV Resort many times in the future.
