THE LOUISIANA STATE WIT RALLY

The "Rayne Frog" welcomed us to the city of Rayne, Louisiana. The weather was beautiful for the occupants of the fifteen coaches from Georgia. Since Rayne is known as "Frog City," there are murals on sides of buildings depicting their little green friends.

As their rally theme was western, our own Patricia and Rickey Heath won the costume contest on Saturday night.

It was an enjoyable rally, and the Louisiana WITs asked us to come again!

THE LAST GWTW OUTING OF 2010

Mark this date on your calendar and don't miss it!

December 10th - 12th at River Country Campground in Gadsden, Alabama. Call the campground for reservations at 256-543-7111. The hosts for this outing will be Tom and Ronnie Padgett (478-971-4017) and Ricky and Patricia Heath (770-258-3055).

If you've never been to the River Country Campground in Gadsden, Alabama at Christmas time, you have missed a real treat. Thousands of lights reflect across the water, multiplying the dazzling effect. Nighttime scenes as shown above and below dot the landscape adding to the holiday enchantment.

A beautifully decorated club house with the "Toys for Tots" Christmas tree adds to the enjoyment. (Don't forget to take your toys.)

We have been known to go caroling for the enjoyment of the other visitors at the park (and also for our own enjoyment.)

Go ahead - REGISTER NOW!

Although the leaf color at Dillard, Georgia was a little past its peak for our November outing, it was still beautiful. The 29 attendees enjoyed excellent weather with azure blue skies, brisk mornings and warm days - just right!

To kick off the outing, Friday evening we all went to the Mountain Man Restaurant. After dinner we were treated to entertainment of good old fashioned bluegrass music by the Mountain Man Bluegrass Band.

The Mountain Man Bluegrass Band

After returning from dinner, our wonderful hosts, the Homer Bunch, served us numerous delicious desserts. Then came our business meeting.

Saturday morning we had biscuits, gravy, homemade jams and jellies, juice and coffee. Lunch and afternoon we were on our own, so many of us explored the surrounding area. The Saturday evening meal was sumptuous. We had turkey and dressing, turkey gravy, cranberry sauce, with loads of side dishes and desserts. Chase-the-Ace afterwards was fun.

Sunday morning we met again for a good breakfast before hitting the road. It was another good outing.

MEET OUR NEWEST MEMBERS

Linda and Larry Swanson joined the GWTW family at the recent November outing in Dillard. They reside at 175 Drennan Drive, Fayetteville, GA 30215. WELCOME LINDA AND LARRY!

JoAn Blankenship shows off our new Georgia/Gone with the Winnies t-shirts.

SURPRISE VISITORS

Even though Martha and Julian Neville have belonged to Gone with the Winnies since the late eighties (WIT# 67263) we seldom see them. As they live in nearby Raybun Gap, they came by for a visit and had the Saturday evening meal with us. Hope they come back soon.
