HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Even though the leaves were a little past their peaks for color, the occupants of twelve coaches loved the crisp mountain air - with not a cloud in sight. Our November 9-11, 2012 outing at Leisure Acres Resort in Cleveland, Georgia was a special treat.

Our hosts did an outstanding job, with lots of little elves pitching in due to the fact that Hal and Bobbie Pierce (the scheduled hosts) were unable to be there due to health reasons. Hal and Bobbie, we hope you are both feeling better. We missed you!

We kicked the outing off with our Friday night dinner at the Western Sizzlin' Steak House. The buffet was especially nice. The food was good and the price was right.

Annette & Bill Whitmire and Tom & Betty McHaney enjoy the food at Western Sizzlin'.

And guess who won one of the nice folding chairs - Jesse Chambless!

Saturday afternoon we were on our own to explore the surrounding area, or just visit and/or relax. Some of us went to the Babyland General Hospital to see a Cabbage Patch Baby born, while others checked out Helen, an unique Alpine village.

The ham for our lavish evening meal was supplied by the hosts with everyone bringing a side dish.

Looks good, huh?

After dinner, we did our most favorite thing - visited; however, some of us played Chase the Ace.

During Sunday breakfast, our President thanked all our veterans (and they were many) for their service to our country. A few tears were shed.

Goodbyes were then said until December in Gadsden, Alabama.
